FIRST ANNUAL UNISON Yorkshire & Humberside Black History Month Awards

Dinner + Presentation + Entertainment
Three course meal including Vegetarian and Halal

2023 is the Year of the Black Worker in UNISON, as well as the 75th anniversary of the Windrush.

Join us during Black History Month to recognise some of the great work being undertaken in the region to eradicate racism and to celebrate those that become role models and go above and beyond to get engagement and integration.

This event is hosted and sponsored by UNISON Sheffield Teaching Hospital branch.

GUESTS:

Christina McAnea (UNISON General Secretary)
Gloria Mills (UNISON National Equalities Officer)
Councillor Colin Ross (Lord Mayor Sheffield)
Mrs Lubu Nxumalo (High Commissioner of Zambia)
Peter Bradley (Deputy Lord Lieutenant)
Oliver Coppard (Mayor, South Yorkshire)
Gill Furness (MP, Sheffield, Brightside and Hillsborough)

ENTERTAINMENT:

Gospel choir
SuNrit Culture (Indian dance and storytelling)
